

Wining and Dying

Book Club Questions

1. Have you ever attended an art and wine festival?
2. While reading, did you enjoy how the book's theme made an appearance?
3. How did you feel when Jenna and Bailey decided to question Yardley and then followed her? Was she too rash and did you feel her reasoning was justified?
4. Jenna and Rhett are planning on getting married. Do you think they will overcome the obstacles of time and location? Do you like how Rhett treats Jenna?
5. Jenna is an amateur sleuth and amateur sleuths need a good reason to get involved with a murder. Did you feel her concern for Keller and then Naomi was valid?
6. As for Keller, did you believe he was innocent? What about the stolen art found in his garage? Did you guess how it had gotten there?
7. Have you ever attended a foodie event to learn how to adorn food or desserts? Was it fun? What did you like or not like about it? Did you enjoy Chef Katie's demonstration in the book?
8. Cinnamon and Jenna have a prickly friendship. Cinnamon clearly doesn't want Jenna to interfere in investigations; on the other hand, she does like how Jenna thinks. How can they continue to be friends?
9. Did Jenna handle facing off with the killer well? Was she equipped to meet the challenge?
10. Perhaps you guessed the culprit before the end, but did you guess the motive before it was revealed? What were the clues that led you to your conclusion? Did any red herrings steer you in the wrong direction?
