1. This is the first book in the series. Did you enjoy getting to know Allie and her friends?
2. Allie is a caterer and baker. Did you realize how difficult it was to be a caterer and baker? The hours? The baking, icing, having an approved workspace, etc.?
3. Allie's cat is named Darcy. Have you ever known a furry friend named after a literary character?
4. Do you have a bookstore like Feast for the Eyes near you with knowledgeable people working there? If not and one were to open, would it be a place you would frequent?
5. Have you ever gone to a costume party? How did it make you feel?
6. Were you concerned about Allie trying to exonerate her friend Tegan and finding justice for her other friend Marigold? Did she ever cross the line? Was she attentive to details?
7. Did you know who killed Marigold and, more importantly, why?
8. Who all was on your suspect list? Do you jot down notes when reading a book to keep it all straight?
9. Has reading about the Asheville, NC area made you want to visit?
10. What, in particular, drew you into the story?
11. What did you think about Allie's relationship with Tegan's half-sister Vanna? Will they be able to work together? Or will sparks continue to fly?
