

A FLICKER OF A DOUBT
Book Club Questions

1. This is the fourth book in the series. Did you read the first three? If you didn't, is there enough history to feel like you could read this book as a stand-alone book?
2. Courtney is making fairy gardens for an important tea and art show. Have you ever attended an art show? What did you like about it?
3. Have you ever visited an art gallery? Did you realize how much goes into preserving art?
4. Fiona is taking her role as a fairy sleuth much more seriously. And she's tapping into her magical powers. Are you enjoying exploring these new aspects with her?
5. Did you believe Ziggy was guilty? Did you appreciate how much he wanted to protect his business partner and friend, Meaghan?
6. When Courtney makes fairy gardens, and the steps are described in the story, can you visualize the garden? Has learning about fairy gardens made you want to make one for yourself?
7. Courtney slyly invites a few suspects to her shop for tea. She also goes to a new crime scene and discovers a major clue. Do you like her abilities to suss out information? Does any of it feel unnatural to her character?
8. Brady's ex-wife has come to town for the art festival with her superstar husband. Did you enjoy the scenes where she and Brady and Courtney interact?
9. There are more fairies in Carmel-by-the-Sea than Courtney first suspected. She's enjoying meeting them, one by one. Do you have a favorite fairy?
10. Did you see the ending coming? Did you guess who the killer was and why? The why is the most important, isn't it? The motive. Did you find it satisfying?